

Reverently and Meekly Now

Joseph L. Townsend, 1849-1942

Ebenezer Beesley, 1840-1906

Reverently ♩ = 76-88

arr. Laurel Hunt Pedersen

1. Rev - 'rent - ly and meek - ly now,
 2. In this bread now blest for thee,
 3. Bid thine heart all strife to cease;
 4. At the throne I in - ter - cede;

Let thy head most hum - bly bow.
 Em - blems of my bod - y see;
 With thy breth - ren be - at - peace.
 For thee ev - er do I plead.

Think of me, thou ran - somed one;
 In this wa - ter or this wine,
 Oh, for - give as thou wouldst be friend,
 I have loved thee as thy friend,

Think what I for thee have done.
 Ev - blems of my blood di - vine.
 E'vn for - giv - en that now by me.
 With a love that con - not end.

17

5 1 3 4

With my blood that dripped like rain,
Oh, re - mem - ber what was done
In the sol - emn faith of prayer
Be o - be - dient, I im - plore,

21

5 3 1 2 5 1

Sweet in an - o - ny of pain,
That the sin - ner might be won.
Cast up - on me might be thy care,
Prayer - ful, watch - ful ev - er - more,

25

5 1 5

With my bod - y of on the tree
On the cross of Cal - va - ry
And my Spir - it's grace shall be
And be con - stant un - to me,

29

5 1 4 3 2 1

I have ran - somed e - ven thee.
I have suf - fered death for thee.
Like a foun - tain un - to thee.
That thy Sav - ior I may be.